WELLPOINT SYSTEMS AND IDEACA KNOWLEDGE SERVICES PARTNER TO PROVIDE SOLUTIONS TO THE CANADIAN ENERGY INDUSTRY

CALGARY, Alberta – December 20, 2007 – WellPoint Systems today announced the signing of a strategic partnership agreement with Calgary based IDEACA Knowledge Services (IDEACA). As strategic partners, IDEACA and WellPoint Systems will coordinate their resources to focus on the introduction of WellPoint solutions based on Microsoft Dynamics AX for the energy industry, offering potential revenue growth opportunities for both organizations by aligning the sales and implementation efforts of two of Canada's most successful Microsoft Dynamics AX Partners in support of the Canadian oil and gas and mining industries.

"This new partnership offers substantial synergies that will ultimately benefit both our customers and the marketplace as a whole," said Ian Harrill, Director of Channel Development at WellPoint Systems. "IDEACA's and WellPoint's common focus on the energy industry is allowing us to collaborate on something that has never been offered before; a platform upon which companies will create industry-centric business processes that allow them to improve operational efficiency, promote collaboration and share common information."

"This joint offering is a natural evolution of how we go to market and service our energy customers," said Angus Cowan, IDEACA's Regional Director for Western Canada. "WellPoint's industry expertise coupled with our experience in delivering solutions on-time and on-budget makes for a powerful combination that will be of benefit to our mutual customers."

WellPoint Systems, known for its innovative development of integrated business and operations systems designed for the energy industry, is leading the introduction of a 'modular systems platform' built to address the needs of oil and gas and mining companies.

IDEACA is a leading information technology services company specializing in Microsoft Dynamics AX, Customer Relationship Management and Systems Integration. They are widely recognized for their world-class implementation expertise and proven track record for delivering solutions that stimulate value through collaboration and sharing. IDEACA will play an important role in the execution of WellPoint's sales and implementation strategy going forward.

WellPoint today also announced that it has issued 1,382,981 common shares to Blackmont Capital Inc., at a deemed price of $0.40 Canadian, in consideration for a fee of $525,000US in connection with the successful financing related to the Company's recently completed acquisition of Bolo Systems, Inc.
